

The Husband Project

It's about love. It's about respect. It's about letting your husband know that you still think he is a hottie!

Have you and your husband gone from over the-top romantics to tolerant roommates? Do you dress up more to go out to dinner with your girlfriends than you do with your husband? Have you forgotten the fine art of flirting with your guy? Maybe it is time to put your husband on "Project Status".

In The Husband Project, author Kathi Lipp shows you how, even in the midst of your busy schedule, to take your marriage from ordinary to amazing in just 21 days. Through simple daily action plans, you'll discover fun and creative ways to bring back that lovin' feeling - and to remind you and your guy why you got married in the first place. So grab a couple of friends and rise to the challenge that women across the US have taken: three weeks of putting your man before kids, housework, jobs and even shopping at Target.

"Kathi, it was AMAZING to speak with you!!!! You are not only incredibly insightful, but incredibly funny. And I haven't found any other female speaker about men that approaches the subject in a way that not only is humorous but completely honors men at the same time. I was really impressed by your approach and your really practical research to give the women specific 'to do's' that they could take home with them and do easily. And clearly... the women absolutely loved you."
