

How to Prep for EXTREME Hospitality

When we have the opportunity to provide food, shelter and hospitality to someone we love or even a stranger that needs help, being ready makes them and your family more comfortable.

1. Inflatable Mattress
2. Fresh pillows
3. Stocked pantry (canned food, feminine supplies, things for scones and muffins)
4. “Raid the pantry” privileges (show them where the food is and let them help themselves)
5. Show them coffee maker and how it works
6. Let them know the quirks of your house
7. Basket in the room with soap, toiletries, bottled water
8. Let them know your routine
9. Give them “permission” to live in your house, join your family for meals, etc.